PROSPECTUS

for Admission to Ph.D. - 2026-2027

GLIMPSES OF DIGNITARIES VISIT

KMGIPSR - Ph.D. ADMISSION 2026-27

FOREWORD

Kanchi Mamunivar Government Institute for Postgraduate Studies and Research (KMGIPSR), Puducherry, stands as a beacon of higher learning and research excellence in South India. Since its inception in 1989, the institute has been committed to advancing postgraduate education and fostering a culture of inquiry, innovation and integrity. Affiliated with Pondicherry University and recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC), KMGIPSR has continually evolved to meet the dynamic needs of academia and society.

The launch of Ph.D. admissions from the academic year 2026–2027 marks a significant milestone in the institute’s journey towards becoming a comprehensive research centre. This initiative reflects our vision to nurture scholars who will contribute to national development through rigorous research, ethical scholarship and interdisciplinary collaboration. Recently UGC has revised the Minimum Standards and Procedures for award of Ph.D. degree through a gazette notification on 7th November 2022. KMGIPSR has revised the Ph.D. regulations accordingly. The present regulations shall be called “KMGIPSR Ph. D. Regulations – 2026”. The framework outlined in this prospectus ensures full compliance with UGC Ph. D. Regulations (2022) and embodies the principles of transparency, inclusivity and academic excellence.

As we embark on this new chapter, KMGIPSR reaffirms its commitment to quality assurance, innovation and global relevance. The doctoral programs will not only strengthen the institutional research ecosystem but also empower scholars to address contemporary challenges through knowledge creation and application.

We invite aspiring researchers to join us in this pursuit of excellence and contribute to the intellectual growth of our nation.

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

"KMGIPSR has always stood for academic excellence and research innovation. With the introduction of structured Ph.D. programmes from 2026–2027, we aim to nurture a new generation of scholars who will contribute meaningfully to knowledge creation and societal development. Our commitment to quality, compliance and inclusivity will ensure that doctoral research at KMGIPSR meets the highest national and international standards."

RELEVANCE & VISION FOR Ph.D. ADMISSIONS -2026 – 2027

With its strong postgraduate academic foundation, Kanchi Mamunivar Government Institute for Postgraduate Studies and Research (KMGIPSR) is well-positioned to introduce Ph.D. programmes from the academic year 2026–2027 onwards. The launch of doctoral programmes will:

- Strengthen the Institute's role as a leading centre for research and innovation in the region.
- Ensure alignment with the University Grants Commission (UGC) Regulations for Award of Ph.D. Degree, 2022.
- Enhance the Institute's performance in national accreditation and ranking frameworks such as NAAC and NIRF.
- Promote faculty-led research, interdisciplinary collaborations, and externally funded research projects.
- Provide opportunities for scholars to contribute to knowledge creation and societal development through high-quality research.

ANNEXURE-I: Ph.D. ADMISSION REGULATIONS-2026-20271) General Regulations

- a. Governed by UGC Minimum Standards and Procedures for Award of Ph.D. Degree Regulations, 2022.
- b. Applicable to all the departments of KMGIPSR.
- c. Admission strictly through Entrance Examination + Interview or exemption via JRF/NET/ UGC- CSIR/INSPIRE.

2) Coursework Regulations

All Ph.D. scholars shall be required to complete the prescribed coursework within the first year of admission. The coursework shall include Research Methodology as a compulsory paper and advanced subject-specific courses relevant to the area of research. A minimum of 55% marks or its equivalent grade shall be required for successful completion of the coursework. Candidates possessing M. Phil. Degree may be considered for exemption from the above said two coursework in accordance with the provisions of the UGC (Minimum Standards and Procedures for Award of Ph.D. Degree) Regulations and the rules of the Institute. All the Ph. D. scholars with PG and M. Phil. Degree are required to complete one additional course work on Research and Publication Ethics (RPE) with a minimum of 55% marks.

3) Doctoral Committee

Each Ph.D. scholar shall be assigned a Research Advisory Committee (RAC) to provide academic guidance and monitor the progress of research work throughout the programme. The RAC shall review the scholar's progress at least once every semester and provide recommendations for the effective completion of the research work. The proceedings and recommendations of the RAC shall be duly recorded and submitted to the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) for monitoring and compliance with the applicable academic and quality assurance requirements.

4) Progress Evaluation

All Ph.D. scholars shall be required to present annual progress seminars before the Research Advisory Committee (RAC) to demonstrate the progress and quality of their research work. Failure to comply with the prescribed progress review requirements or to maintain satisfactory research progress may result in the cancellation of Ph.D. registration, as per the regulations of the Institute. Furthermore, scholars shall be required to publish a minimum of two research papers in refereed journals before the submission of their Ph.D. thesis, in accordance with the applicable academic and research regulations.

5) Thesis Submission

The minimum duration for completion of the Ph.D. programme shall be three years from the date of admission. Candidates possessing an M.Phil. degree may be eligible to complete the programme within a minimum period of two years, subject to the applicable regulations. The maximum duration for completion of the Ph.D. programme shall be six years, with an additional relaxation of up to two years for women candidates, in accordance with the prevailing UGC norms.

Prior to submission, the Ph.D. thesis shall undergo a plagiarism assessment, and the similarity index shall not exceed the limit prescribed by the Institute and the UGC regulations. Submission of the thesis shall require the recommendation and approval of the Research Advisory Committee (RAC), along with documentary evidence of the prescribed research publications.

The Ph.D. thesis shall be evaluated by a panel consisting of two Indian examiners and one foreign examiner, as per the Institute's regulations. Upon receiving favourable evaluation reports, the candidate shall be required to appear for a public viva voce examination for the award of the Ph.D. degree.

6) Ethics & Plagiarism Policy

All Ph.D. scholars shall maintain the highest standards of academic integrity and ethical conduct throughout the course of their research. Any thesis or research work found to contain plagiarism beyond the permissible limits prescribed by the Institute and the UGC regulations shall be liable for rejection and may attract disciplinary action as deemed appropriate. Research involving human participants or animal subjects shall require prior approval from the duly constituted Ethics Committee, and scholars shall comply with all applicable ethical guidelines and regulatory requirements before commencing such research.

7) Award of Degree

The Ph.D. degree shall be awarded only upon the successful completion of the viva voce examination and fulfillment of all academic, research, and regulatory requirements prescribed by the Institute and the UGC. The award of the degree shall be formally notified by the Controller of Examinations. The degree certificate shall clearly indicate the discipline in which the degree is awarded and the title of the thesis submitted by the candidate.
